TERRY FOX

Friday, September 23, 2022

BMHS

Today is the Terry Fox run and we would like to thank everyone for their support and donations towards this great cause. It has been great seeing all the spirit and everyone participating wearing their red and white or denim.

We hope that all of the grade 9s and 10s who participated this morning learned the importance of this fundraiser as well as had some fun while doing so. Grade 11 and 12 classes will be coming out for their run during second period.

If you purchased a Terry Fox t-shirt and your class is not participating or you have a spare, you are also welcome to come out and show your support.

We hope to see everyone there!
