TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

Monday September 25, 2023

BMHS

This is the week leading up to the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, which honours the children who never returned from Canada's residential schools, as well as those who survived them and the families and communities that live with the resulting intergenerational harms.

We recognize the legacy of the Canadian Indian residential school system and the impact it has had on Indigenous communities.

Listen for announcements this week about how we can bring Truth and Reconciliation principles to our daily lives.
