Attention, all musicians: Banting Memorial's premier vocal ensemble Glee rehearses Mondays and Wednesdays after school until 4 o'clock. It's a multi-level vocal ensemble, with no experience necessary. All that's required is to show up ready to sing, and have some fun!

The ensemble performs at school functions, local music festivals, and performance opportunities in the community. Second semester is an ideal time to jump into the ensemble, as we are starting some new material for spring!

We rehearse tonight after school until 4 o'clock. See you there!

Black History Month

Tuesday February 13, 2024

Today for black history month we would like to showcase Jesse Collins, who is the first Black executive producer of the Super Bowl halftime show. This weekend over 100 million people tune into the Super Bowl and its halftime show. He's known for producing some of the most memorable moments in awards show history.

He sees his work as supporting the current renaissance of Black art.

“This is not some affirmative action type of situation because at the end of the day, we are great storytellers, great actors, actresses, directors,” Collins said. “And we’re creating content that’s reaching audiences previously ignored, and a lot of it is crossing over. So, from a business standpoint, it’s going to make sense, and I think that we might look back at this 20 years from now and say, ‘This was a pivotal moment.’”

Anyone in BSA attending the play, please come see Ms Dudarewicz at the beginning of lunch in student success.

Link Crew meeting moved to Thursday. Please meet in the career centre Thursday at the beginning of lunch. All leaders NEED to attend.

There will be a Band rehearsal today after school in Room 170 from 2:30 to 3:30 - new members are always welcome! Come on out and enjoy some great music!
