

BMHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monday November 6, 2023

BREAKFAST CLUB

Monday November 6, 2023

BMHS

Banting's breakfast club is up and running again. All Banting students are welcome to come to the room 165 before school, from 7:40- 8:00am to start their day with bagels and cream cheese, milk, yogurt, and fruit.

There is no cost to access this great program, please come down and start you day off right.

Cross Country

Monday November 6, 2023

Cross Country OFSAA took place over this weekend at Centennial Park in Etobicoke. With 63 para athletes, the field was stacked with lots of really strong competitors. Our very own Adam Maciel put up a personal best time of 18 minutes 54 seconds with a sub 5 minute per kilometer pace to place 8th place overall! Morgan Hohner also put up a personal best time finishing 14th overall. It was a great season for all our athletes. Thank you everyone for competing hard and leaving no gas in the tank and huge congrats to our OFSAA athletes!!

Board games and Gingerbread Club

Monday November 6, 2023

BMHS

Do you like to play board games? Board Game Club is starting next week. Come to room 165 on Mondays (TODAY) at lunch if you would like to play some board games. Bring a friend or bring just yourself and meet others that like to play board games.

Gingerbread Club week be starting Tuesday (Tomorrow) and continuing through to December. If you would like to join and make a giant gingerbread house come to room 165 Tuesday at lunch.

Curling is cancelled tonight.

Monday November 6, 2023

BMHS

Curling is cancelled tonight.

What you need to know to fund your postsecondary education

Monday November 6, 2023

Are you in Gr. 12 and trying to figure out what you are doing after high school? Are you worried about how you are going to pay for everything? Guidance is offering a presentation on “What you need to know to fund your postsecondary education” at the back of the library on Tuesday, November 7th starting at 10:50am. Hope to see you there!