BMHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday December 12, 2023

BMHS

Banting's breakfast club is up and running again. All Banting students are welcome to come to the Room 165 before school, from 7:40- 8:00am to start their day with bagels and cream cheese, milk, yogurt, and fruit.

There is no cost to access this great program, please come down and start your day off right.

Thank you for supporting Banting Green Industries! If you, or a family member, has purchased a plant. Please pick it up at lunch on Wednesday or Friday in room 117.

BMHS

Hip hop dance team has a practice today at lunch. Lyrical team is reminded there is no practice this week.

Tips & Strategies for managing test/exam stress

BMHS

This week there are a few different opportunities for students to get help with studying and prepare for culminating activities:

The last Tips & Strategies for managing test and exam stress will be taking place on Weds at lunch. This is a 40 minute lunch and learn session for students to get some support with studying help and learn about how to manage and cope with test taking anxiety. Pizza lunch is provided.

The library will be open on today and Wednesday after school until 4:00. Open study space is an opportunity for students to drop in, have a designated space to prepare for culminating activities and get help with homework or questions related to any of their subjects before culminating assignment days begin. Teachers will be there to supervise and answer questions from 2:30-4:00.

BMHS

Reminder to all students taking part in the yearbook cover contest, your submissions are due this Friday, December 15th. Make sure to get your entries to Ms Novek in room 174 by the end of the day on Friday.

Yearbook part. 2

BMHS

Just a reminder to all students that this school year's yearbook is up for sale on Cash Online for $35.00. Get yourself on the list for one and enjoy the memories of the school year.

There will be a rehearsal today after school for the Concert Band in Room 170 from 2:30 to 3:30 - new members are always welcome!